問題 4 / 5

6 長文内容一致

文章を読み、問いに対する最も適切な答えを、1～4から一つ選びなさい。

27

Last Saturday, Mika visited an animal shelter with her English club. At first, she thought the visit would only be fun because she loves dogs and cats. However, she learned that many animals need new homes and that the workers are always busy. Mika cleaned cages, prepared food, and took a small dog for a walk. The worker told the students that even small help was important. After the visit, Mika made a poster at school to tell other students about the shelter. Some of her classmates decided to collect old towels for the animals. Mika felt that learning about a problem was good, but doing something for it was even better.

What did the worker tell the students?

- | | |
|------------------------------------|--------------------------------------|
| 1 Even small help was important. | 2 All students should have pets. |
| 3 The shelter did not need towels. | 4 Animals cannot live with families. |

28

Ken's family planned to go hiking during the spring vacation. On the morning of the trip, it rained heavily, so they decided to visit the town history museum instead. Ken was not excited at first, but he soon found an old map of his town. The map showed that a large river used to run near his school. A museum guide explained that people changed the river's course many years ago to stop floods. Ken took notes and later used them for his social studies report. He wrote that a rainy day helped him learn something new about the place where he lives.

How did Ken feel about the museum at first?

- | | |
|------------------------------|-------------------------------|
| 1 He was not excited. | 2 He was very angry. |
| 3 He was too sleepy to walk. | 4 He was afraid of the guide. |
